Dr. Dale Robertson, Pastor

From the Pastor's Pen

Our Associational Revival in March was a time of great spiritual refreshment for all who attended. I am proud of the attendance of our folks from North Main. I am especially blessed by the prayers and encouragement of everyone who gathered at the altar on the final night and prayed with and for their pastor. Our worship service on March 31st was a continued outpouring of the Holy Spirit. I trust that all of you will continue to pray and seek the filling of the Spirit of God. When the Lord's Spirit is working, and has free reign in our lives there will be great joy in our hearts. Lives will be saved!

Easter (Resurrection Sunday) is very late in the calendar this year. It will probably be warm and (hopefully) sunny for our Sunrise Service, Breakfast, and Worship. I am praying for a great attendance and a spiritual blessing from heaven. Plan to attend all our services surrounding Holy Week. Bring your children to our Easter Egg Hunt on the 13th. The kids will have lots of fun, but the real intent is to teach them the story of Christ's Sacrifice and Resurrection. Pray with me that the Gospel will take root in the hearts of the children.

I leave you with a wonderful quote I heard in a sermon from Dr. Robert Jeffress:

"The strength of the Church is the Christian and the strength of the Christian is the Church."
