 BY  accepting, believing and receiving Jesus as our Savior, we are saved. Romans 10:9
 HEAVEN is a sure thing, if we believe in Jesus. 1 John 5:13

PASTOR'S ARTICLE

In recognition of the 242nd Anniversary our National Independence, I would like to list some of the rights and freedoms we enjoy under our Constitution. These are taken from the Bill of Rights, with my interpretative comments:

1. There shall be no official religion supported by the government. (No one can be forced to support a particular faith against his will.) You have the right to worship God (or not worship) as your conscience leads. Congress cannot regulate or suppress the free exercise of religious faith.
2. We have the right to freely express our opinions. (This especially refers to political and religious speech.) Journalists can publish news or opinions that disagree with the government. (Americans have the duty to respect those with whom we disagree and to always tell the truth.)
3. We have the freedom to assemble peaceably. The police cannot break up a political, religious or business meeting among citizens. We can organize public demonstrations to express our views. We can write letters and circulate petitions to state our desire for changes in the laws.
4. We have the right to bear arms. We can defend ourselves, our families, our fellow citizens and our freedoms. (We must also be ready to use our arms to defend our nations in time of war.)
5. The government cannot force us to house and feed the military in our homes. (We already pay the government to do that through taxes.)
6. We have the right to privacy in our persons, houses, private papers and personal effects. The government cannot search our homes or businesses unless they have a written warrant. Law enforcement officers must present reasonable evidence that a crime has been committed before they can seek a warrant. (They can't fish for evidence or spy on innocent citizens.)
7. For a citizen to be charged with a crime he has to be indicted by a grand jury made up of his fellow citizens. We have the right to post bail if we are arrested, to have a speedy trial before an impartial jury, to know the charges against us, to defend ourselves in court, to face our accusers and to have an attorney to represent us. The government cannot take our freedom without due process of law. They cannot impose excessive fines on us or punish us inhumanely. They cannot confiscate our personal property without fair compensation.

Christians and all US Citizens need to know that these are God given rights which cannot be taken away by the government. Thank the Lord for His gracious leadership in the framing of our Constitution. The United States of America has never been a perfect nation. We are all sinners before the Holy God. But America is the greatest nation on earth. Our destiny lies in the greatness of the Constitution, the goodness of our people and the grace of our God.
