Many of you know that I volunteer with a Good News Club at Shive Elementary in Rockwell. This is sponsored by First Baptist, Rockwell, where my son-in-law is pastor. The other day I was explaining the Bible memory verse for the week. I held up some money as an example of something valuable. Then I told the children that I had something of far greater value than all the money in the world. I reached in my shirt pocket and produced my little New Testament. I stated that the Bible was my greatest treasure. (The memory verse for that week was, "Thy word have I hid in mine heart that I might not sin against thee." Psalm 119:11.) I asked, "Why is this little book the greatest treasure we can possess?" One little girl, who could not have been older than seven, raised her hand and said, "Because when you have the Bible, you can read it any time; and when you read it, God speaks to you and you have Him with you wherever you are!" That is a direct quote. I was blown away! The other adults and I looked at each other in stunned silence. The greatest theologian could not have said it better. I was reminded of the words of our Lord in Luke 10:21, "I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes; even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight."

To those of you who give out the Halloween treats in Spencer, who teach in our Sunday School and VBS, who lead in ABC Kids, who work in the nursery and who bring your children to North Main Baptist, I encourage you with these words: "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." Galatians 6:9. Last Sunday ABC Kid's had 15 in attendance! What a potential! Pray for the children! Keep teaching God's Word!

"Tell them the stories of Jesus, write on their hearts every word. Tell them the stories most precious, sweetest that ever were heard."

If we are faithful to our calling, Christ will give the increase. He Promised!
Happy Thanksgiving!
